

WELFARE AND SAFEGUARDING PROVISION: ROB ROY BOAT CLUB SMALL BOATS HEAD - 2018

The race day organizing committee believe that the welfare and wellbeing of all children is paramount. All children, regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, religion or ability, have equal rights to safety and protection. All suspicions, concerns and allegations of harm will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately.

The Rob Roy Boat Club Welfare Officer will act as the point of contact for any concerns or allegations.

In the event of an incident or concern please contact any of the following:

Welfare Officer, Carlos Montes, welfare@robroyboatclub.org.uk

British Rowing Child Protection Officer (CPO), 020 8337 6700

NSPCC 088 800 5000

In the event of an immediate threat contact the local police.

Members of all competing clubs are expected to abide by the rules of the competition, by good sportsmanship, and by the British Rowing Code of Conduct with respect to the welfare of their own and other juniors.

Missing participants should be reported promptly to the nearest race day official who will be able to contact race control to coordinate a search and / or contact the emergency services.

Competitors and their supporters are asked to ensure that any photographs they take are consistent with child protection wellbeing and safety. Any apparently inappropriate photography will be reported.
